

WEDDINGS

at the Alpine

Welcome to The Alpine Hotel, where cherished moments and timeless memories are crafted in our historic venue. Nestled within the walls of a heritage-listed building, erected in 1885, we offer a picturesque setting that seamlessly blends old-world charm with modern elegance. Whether you envision an intimate gathering or a grand affair, our versatile spaces cater to weddings of all sizes and styles. With a commitment to excellence and attention to detail, our dedicated team is here to ensure that your special day unfolds exactly as you've always dreamed.

At The Alpine Hotel, we're not just a venue; we're your partner in creating your perfect wedding day. Our historic building, full of charm, sets the stage for your perfect reception space. We're here to make sure everything goes off without a hitch, from the planning stages to the big day itself. Our team will guide you through every step, taking care of all the details so you can relax and enjoy the moment.

We know your wedding day is special, and we're committed to making it as stress-free as possible. Whether it's coordinating with vendors on the day or handling last-minute changes, we've got you covered.

So let us help you create the wedding day you've always dreamed of, where love, laughter, and memories are front and centre. We look forward to assisting you in your event!
